

1001, Catalan Association of Tintin fans, is an association that wants to unite all the Tintin fans of Catalonia and other Catalan-speaking territories. It was created in 2003 by a group of fans of the adventures of Tintin 1001, in Catalan, is pronounced like the name of Tintin's inseparable dog, Snowy ("Milú" in Catalan).

A Tintin fan is anyone who enjoys reading
"The Adventures of Tintin"

What purposes does 1001 have?

The purposes of the Catalan Tintin fans Association are the dissemination and study of Georges Remi's (aka Hergé) work, and the preservation and cataloging of the Catalan tintinophile heritage.

What does the association do?

The 1001 association organizes and carries out all types of activities, with non-profit purpose, with the aim of promoting the dissemination and study of Hergé's work:

- We publish a magazine twice a year that has a great aesthetic and content quality
- We have a website, www.1001.cat, with many interesting pages
- We hold an annual meeting in one of the Catalan-speaking territories or cities
- We organize, on the last Thursday of each month, the Dijous Tintinaire ('Tintinophil Thursday')
- We offer talks, conferences and round tables
- We mount exhibitions with a Tintin's content, such as the exhibition "Les llengües tintinaires" (The Tintin's languages)
- We organize an annual friendship lunch near Christmas's dates
- We have planned to create a "Tintin's documentary repository as soon as possible
- We have a presence on social networks, such as Facebook, Instagram, X...
- And, whatever comes us to mind or whatever our members may propose

Do you need to be an expert in Tintin to become a member?

No, you just need to like the adventures of Tintin and want to participate in the association.

What does 1001 offer me?

- Having a personalized membership card
- Receiving our semi-annual magazine by postal mail
- Participating in the activities of the association and receiving information of tintinophile interest
- Meeting other Tintin fans who share the same hobby
- Obtaining the association loyalty badge upon completing ten years as a member of 1001
- And much more!!!

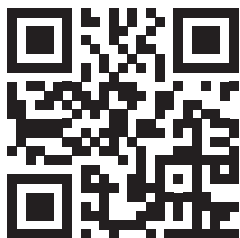

What should I do to become a member?

It's very easy: you must fill out the form on our website www.1001.cat with your information. We will then contact you to complete the registration process.

The annual social fee is €30 (for people residing in the Spanish State or Andorra; for people residing in other territories, the fee is €40); This fee gives the right to receive the two annual issues of the magazine "Jo Encara Diria Més" (June and December), in addition to receiving information related to Tintin by email and being able to participate in the association's activities.
